To Agree and fever is one of the institutions of the West and South, but it mode to longer be dreaded by any one since we have a ramedy, which has been tried by such vast numbers within the past twelve months, and in crery in tance has stopped it when used as directed. We therefore tell everybody to buy Dr. Hardey's Agac Tonic. It is the best in use.

'PROCEASTINATION IS THE THEF OF TIME.'—Too many allow themselve to go withen proper nonri liment, and before they know it have the dyspepsia in the worst way. Indigestion, unless speedily attended to, will certainly produce sickness and ill health. We know of no remedy equal to Cocks Dyspepsia Cure in such cases. It enables the patient to take hearty food, the parent of health, stops distress after eating as soon as you take it, and is a perfect regulator of the stomach and bowels.

Foreign News by the Germania.

Madison, Ind., August 6. The steamer Gen. Lytle blew up near Bethlehem this afternoon. The passengers say she was racing with the St. Charles. When the explosion took place both boats were close together. The St. Charles brought the wounded and dead to this city. Not more than fifteen or the St. Charles deny the charge, that the torms were gote through with, the white caps were drawn over the doomed men's heads, and the drop fell.

> Special D. patch to the Louisville Journal. Madison, Ind., August 6.

The steamer General Lytle blew up bout eighteen miles below this city this afternoon. The St. Charles, of the Peoide a Line, passed the Lytle lying at Westport. When near Bothlehem the Lytle came up to the St. Charles, and in the attempt to pass her was blown up. The boats were very near together when the Card. Godman, of the Lytle, is dead.
